

FOURTH ANNUAL ALASKA FOLKFESTIVAL

Welcome to the 4th Annual Alaska Folkfestival!

The purpose of this festival is plain and simple - to provide an event and environment in which musicians and artists alike can gather to enjoy and share one of Alaska's most vital arts - folk music. The festival continues to grow each year. Artists from the Yukon, Fairbanks, Haines, Skagway, Hoonah, Petersburg, Seattle, and other points will be in attendance.

In addition, J.P. and Annadeene Fraley from Rush, Kentucky will be featured as special guest artists. J.P. and Anadeene play outstanding old time fiddle and guitar numbers. They have been featured at many major festivals throughout the United States as well as on National Public Radio's Folkfestival U.S.A. series. If you like fiddle-playing, don't miss J.P. and Annadeene performing on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

You will notice by glancing at the schedule that we have changed the structure of the festival somewhat this year -- there will be five performances. You are welcome to one or all, however seating will be on a first come first served basis.

Workshops will be offered all day Saturday and Sunday. Don't miss these even if you don't play an instrument. There will be lots of performing and several workshop "leaders". It is bound to be fun to listen to!! If you have an instrument - bring it! There will be plenty of opportunities to pick with old friends and new. Don't feel bashful if you're just learning - you can learn more faster here than almost anywhere else.

If you can't attend in person, tune in to KTOO Radio - they will be broadcasting a part of the festival live.

Come on down to your State Museum and have a relaxed and enjoyable week-end! We'll see you there.

This program presented by the Alaska State Museum and co-sponsored by the Greater Arts and Humanities Council and the University of Alaska.

 Dear Folks — I found this amongst my stash of memoirs —
 thought you might like it
 for your 40th anniversary celebration!
 It's too bad we will just miss it this year, since we've been in every one festival (except '88)
 since the beginning in 1974!
 Take care. Hi to Gregg,
 Jeff, Bob + Don, Mike, Judy,
 etc. etc.
 Happy Valentine's Day
