

5th ANNUAL ALASKA FOLK FESTIVAL

PERFORMER'S SCHEDULE

Listed below are time and location of your performance at the Alaska Folk Festival. Please be prepared to perform 10 minutes prior to the times listed so there will be minimum delay in the event that the performers preceding you do not show. Also, we ask that you and/or your group be at the 'on call' area 10 minutes before you are scheduled to perform. At the Museum, this area will be to the immediate right of the risers. At the Auditorium, this area will be at the warm-up room. Your help will insure that performances progress smoothly.

Enclosed you will find a Performer's pass which will enable you to attend all Festival performances. Please have it with for the Friday, Saturday, and Sunday afternoon performances.

5th ANNUAL ALASKA FOLK FESTIVAL WORKSHOPS - ALASKA STATE MUSEUM

A major purpose of the Folk Festival is to create the opportunity for folk artists to share music and the means of making it. Workshops are intended to do just that. All workshops are open to everyone- if you have an instrument, bring it, regardless of whether you are a beginner or professional. If you don't play, sit in and listen. Either way, workshops are one of the most enjoyable parts of the Festival.
