VALENTINE BUILDING

~~D.A.Disp. 4/15/1913 Mrs. Bean's Milinery Store on the corner of Front & Seward, in the old building originally built by Dick Willoughby, is now being torn down to make room for the new Valentine Bldg. This was probably the oldest building left standing in Juneau.~~

D.A.Disp. 11/21/1912 Emory Valentine was to build the first fire-proof building in Juneau next spring. On the corner of Front and Seward on property sold by old Dick Willoughby to W.F. Reed in 1889 for $1000. Willoughby had previously bought the property from Pierre Erussard (French Pete) the discoverer of the Treadwell Mines. He had located the Front St. property as a mineral claim before Juneau was a town.

Valentine gave Reed $4500. for the property in 1894

D.A.Disp. 2/6/1913 Wyatt Kingman and Lucius L.
Clay signed a lease with Val. for space in his new bldg. The old building now housing JOE THE TAILOR will be torn down to make room for the new bldg. Valentine also plans to build a new bldg. on his property on "FRANKLIN ST. Between FRONT & SEWARD" ??????
