

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Hoepfner, Henry

The Log of an Alaskan Pioneer, 1901

MS 4-14-10

Typescript
27 leaves

Processed By: Staff

ACCESS: The collection is unrestricted.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

Hoepfner tells of sailing to Alaska in 1901, construction of the Red Salmon Cannery Co. cannery on the Ugashik River, Bristol Bay region. He describes fishing, canneries in the area, people, and activity during the winter until the following fishing season.

Salmon canneries--Alaska--Ugashik River
Red Salmon Cannery Company
Frontier and pioneer life--Alaska--Bristol Bay Region