

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Yates, David, 1866 - 1953

Papers from Windham Bay Mine, 1898 - 1921

MS 4-29-9

1 legal-size folder

Processed By: Staff

Bibliographic Note

Yates was born in Illinois, but followed the gold rushes first to the Cassiar District and then to Juneau and Wrangel. He worked at Sumdum in the early 1900s, but then went to Windham Bay where he took up claims and remained there the rest of his life. He married in 1905; his wife became postmistress of Windham.

Scope and Contents Note

Ledger (1917-1918) with workers names; grocery lists, and various legal forms.

1. Windham Bay Mine 2. Yates, David