

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Holland, Margaret Felder

Margaret Felder Holland Manuscript, 1977

MS 4-37-5

1 Folder
1 Manuscript

Processed By: Alea Oien
April 2009

ACQUISITION: This collection has no provenance. It was labeled as #1 from Kay's "T" files.

ACCESS: The collection is unrestricted.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian. Photocopying does not constitute permission to publish.

PROCESSING: This collection has been described at the item level. All items have been placed into a pH-neutral folder.

BIO or HISTORICAL NOTE

Margaret Felder Holland was born in Seward, Alaska and grew up in Bethel, Alaska until the age of 12.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

The Margaret Felder Holland manuscript is a draft copy of a manuscript for a book titled Yukhta and the Littlest Sourdough, 1977. It is a story of Margaret's life growing up in Bethel, Alaska, and her family history based on memory and family letters and diaries. Margaret's father left the family farm in Illinois in 1903. From California he went to Bethel in 1908 to run a company trading post in Bethel. Included in the manuscript are descriptions of people, schools, and living conditions in the Bethel area, prospectors in remote areas of Alaska in the early twentieth century, and descriptions of Eskimo customs. 104 pages.

SUBJECTS

Bethel, Alaska

INVENTORY

Folder 1 of 1

Manuscript titled Yukhta and the Littlest Sourdough