

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Carr, Grace Fox

Grace Fox Carr Letters and Photograph Collection, 1914

MS 4-37-18

1 Folder
6 photocopied letters
10 pages of photocopied photographs
1 photocopied steamship menu

Processed by: Alea Oien, Apr. 2009
Revised by: Anastasia Tarmann, Apr. 2014
Revised by: Jacki Swearingen, June 2014

ACQUISITION: This collection was donated in 1976 by Wilhelmina C. Rudolph, Grace Fox Carr's daughter, to the Sheldon Jackson Museum. It was later transferred from the Museum to the Alaska State Library Historical Collections. The collection does not have an accession number. It is #60 in Kay's "T" files.

ACCESS: The collection is unrestricted.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian. Photocopying does not constitute permission to publish.

PROCESSING: This collection has been described at the folder level. All items have been placed in Mylar and into a pH-neutral folder.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Mrs. Grace Fox Carr and her husband William lived in Porcupine, Alaska, near Haines, in 1914. At this time William Carr was working as a storekeeper for a gold mine in Porcupine.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

This collection contains photocopies of letters written by Mrs. Carr to her brother Ernst and his wife Genevieve Fox and to other family members living in New York. The letters primarily celebrate the birth of their daughter, Wilhelmina, who was born July 1914 in Haines, Alaska. The photocopied photographs are of the Carr family while living in Haines and Porcupine, Alaska, in 1914. Included is a photocopied steamship menu from the S.S. Humboldt.

SUBJECTS

Porcupine, Alaska; Haines, Alaska; Glacier Creek Mine; Flume; Porcupine Creek.

INVENTORY

Folder 1 of 1

6 photocopied letters

10 pages of photocopied photographs – total of 37 b&w photographs

1 steamship menu