Guide to Collection

Alaska Packers Association

Alaska Packers Association records, 1891-1970

MS 9

ACQUISITION: The original collection was received in 1970 from Del Monte Corporation (11 cubic feet including 10 rolls of microfilm). Additional records were donated by the Whatcom County Park and Recreation Board April 7, 1982 (beginning with Box 22). In 2003, a donation of maps was received from the Center for Pacific NW Studies (Acc. No. 2003-54). Candy Waugaman donated materials in 2004 (Acc. No. 2004-58).

ACCESS: The collection is unrestricted.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: The original, printed guide, A Guide to the Alaska Packers Association Records and to the APA Library, was prepared by Ellen Greenberg March, 1972, who also established the original series, I through VII. In July of 1983, Phyllis DeMuth and Michael Sullivan prepared and published A Guide to the Alaska Packers Association Records 1891-1970 in the Alaska Historical Society. It incorporated the first guide and described a large accession acquired in 1982, with cross-references to the selection of records copied on microfiche (microfiche numbers APA 1 – 720, located in white binders in the Reading Room and in box at beginning of MS 9). See also MFMS 30.

The current collection guide was scanned from the printed guide and includes accessions since 1982.

APA Office File, Miscellaneous (J.D. Cooper). 5 boxes.
1940-1970.

J. Donald Cooper was Alaska Regional Manager of APA in Anchorage, then Operations Manager during the Company's move from Seattle to Semiahmoo in 1969.

The files contain internal and external correspondence, information and reference material on the company's operation in Alaska. The files were lacking organization and have been arranged by subject, with a major file on land/property. Those not maintained by subject are filed by APA office of origin and date. There are files of equipment information and general information on fisheries, employment and publications.

Personnel Records: [Microfiche are located in white binders by microfilm reader in reading room]

[According to a penciled note in the Master File descriptive pages, the Alaska State Library Alaska Historical Collections Library only has microfiche, no paper, of the following Personnel Records. The paper records may have been destroyed once they were filmed.]

Personnel Records: Fishermen, 1894-1941

APA 388-404

This record file of 4 x 6 cards contains information on employees drawing pay as gill net fishermen. The card includes name, union number, birthplace, age, date of first employment, complexion, hair color, employment assignment at the station, fish caught, and ship served on, with some cards having a photo attachment. Most of the men were employed on Bristol Bay sailing ships and worked outside the canneries.

Personnel Records: Seasonal, 1953-1961

APA 405-423

This record file provides brief data on employees at Bristol Bay canneries. Each employee is listed with reference to badge number, name, job classification, union agreement and remarks. Also contains the names of employees working as caretakers in winter.
