

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Healy, Leo R.

To the Klondike: The Diary of a Young Man, 1898 March 1 to Sept. 7

MS 13-7-4

1 folder
48 leaves

Processed By: Staff

Provenance: Unknown.

Scope and Contents Note

Diary of nineteen-year-old Leo R. Healy, who with his brother George Healy, journeyed to the Yukon Klondike Gold Fields in 1898. Arriving in Seattle after a train trip from Chicago, Illinois, the two brothers bought their outfits and voyaged to Skagway, then over the Chilkoot Pass to Dawson. After a brief stay, seeing conditions in Dawson, they returned home via the Yukon and St. Michael.

1. Klondike River Valley (Yukon)--Gold discoveries 2. Alaska--Description and Travel-[date??]