

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Herning, Orville George

Memorabilia concerning the Klondike gold rush, ca. 1897-1902

MS 16B

2 folders

Processed by: Staff

Note: Related collection, MS 16

INVENTORY

Folder 1

Mining instructions, advertisements for outfitting, business cards, map, mining company circulars, notices of annual meetings, correspondence, prospectuses, and newspaper clippings. Mining companies represented include: Klondike and Boston Gold Mining and Manufacturing Co., Joseph Ladue Gold Mining & Development Company of Yukon, British North American Trading and Exploration Company, and broker, E.C. Davis & Co. from Boston.

Folder 2

Receipt with A.C. Co., Knik Alaska. 1899

Quartz locations, Willow Cr. And Little Susitna (2p.)

The Iditarod Trail : Names of the roadhouses and their owners in 1917, together with the approximate milage between roadhouses.

[Notes relating to the Alaskan diaries]

Alaska natives of the Knik, Wasilla, Matanuska, and Upper Cook Inlet areas mentioned in the O.G. Herning diaries.