

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Palmer, Bobbe F.

Southeast Alaska Presbyterian Records, 1793-21st Century

MS 290

1 folder
1 CD

Processed by: Anastasia Tarmann, June 2015
Revised by: Jacki Swearingen, Dec. 2016

ACQUISITION: The collection was compiled and donated by Bobbe F. Palmer, former historian of Alaska Presbytery, with permission from the Presbyterian Historical Society. Accession #2015-005

ACCESS: The collection is unrestricted.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: The collection is processed at a folder level.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Bobbe F. Palmer was historian for Alaska Presbytery in the 1990s, when she gathered the records in this collection. She lived in Juneau from 1982 until 2005. Her husband was coordinator of the Anna Jackman Ministry and General Presbyter of Alaska from 1982 to 1992.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

The CD holds 120 documents containing histories, biographies, and bibliographies related to the Presbyterian Church mission in Southeast Alaska from 1793 through the 21st Century, with the bulk before 1930. The text is organized chronologically, by town or by subject, and alphabetically.

INVENTORY

Folder 1 of 1

CD - Complete AK Presbytery History

CD Contents:

- Bibliography - Index of sources by town and subject (Folder - 46 documents)
- History By Churches - Chronology of each location (Folder - 23 documents)
- Other Kinds Of Mission - (Folder - 8 documents)
 - Bibliography - References
 - Haines House - Chronology (1880-1960)
 - Mission Boat Ministry - Chronology (1880s-1996)
 - MV Princeton Hall - Chronology (1939-1996)
 - Rainbow Glacier Camp - Chronology (1946-1948)
 - Sheldon Jackson School and College - Chronology (1867-ca. 2010)
 - Sources yet to check
 - Women's Presbyterial Society
- Who's Who By Churches - (Folder - 34 documents)
- Failed Mission Outreach - (Single document, 5 pages)
- Interpretators (Interpreters) - (Single document, 3 pages)
- Native Lay Workers In Alaska Presbytery - (Single document, 13 pages)

- Non-Alaska Lay Workers: Presbytery Record of Lay Pastors, Evangelists, and Teachers From Outside Alaska - (Single document, 12 pages)
- Ordained Ministers Who Served In Alaska Presbytery - (Single document, 28 pages)
- Outstanding People (Leaders) In Alaska Presbytery - (Single document, 30 pages)
- Presbyterian History In Southeast Alaska - General, 1793-2002 - (Single document, 133 pages)
- Soboleff - Remarks by Walter Soboleff, Alaska/Yukon Presbytery Joint Meeting, October 11, 2000. Anchorage - (Single document, 1 page)
- Who's Who In Alaska Presbytery-Final - (Single document, 91 pages)