230 photographs
124 nitrate negatives

Processed by: Staff
Revised by: Jacki Swearingen, May 2014

ACQUISITION: J.S. MacKinnon donated the photographs in this collection.

ACCESS: The collection is available for viewing, however, the photographs may not be photocopied.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the Collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: The photographs are sleeved in Mylar and housed in archival folders and boxes. The photographs are numbered. A name index for the portraits follows the numerical inventory. Series II, 124 nitrate negatives, which are stored in their original sleeves within five small Eastman Negative Albums, have been scanned and prints will be made.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

James Simpson "Sim" MacKinnon was born March 26, 1897, in Juneau to pioneer prospector Lockie MacKinnon and his wife, Martha. He was named for Dr. James Kidd Simpson who saved Lockie MacKinnon's life following an explosion at the Ebner Mine in the Last Chance Basin. Sim spent his early childhood in Fairbanks and returned to Juneau, graduating from high school in 1917. He became the first Alaskan to graduate from the U.S. Naval Academy (1921). Sim and Hazel Jaeger were married in 1923 and right away she accompanied him to Chefoo, China, where he was stationed. During his tour of duty their only child, James Simpson "Skip," was born in Manila, Philippines. In 1927, he and his family returned to Juneau where they operated the Alaska Laundry and Cleaners.

MacKinnon was naval aide to Gov. John Troy and later to Gov. Ernest Gruening. After World War II broke out, he returned to active military service as chief of staff for the 17th Naval District, directing the war effort in the Aleutians. He retired with rank of captain in 1946.

MacKinnon was a member of the Juneau Volunteer Fire Department, the Pioneers of Alaska and the Elks. He was a 3rd degree Master Mason and Shriner. "Sim" MacKinnon died July 31, 1990, in Juneau at age 93.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

Series I: These images were collected or photographed by James MacKinnon and depict Southeast Alaska scenes and people. The collection includes 139 portraits representing some well-known southeast figures, territorial governors and legislators. An alphabetical name index provides access to the portraits. Images numbered 131-223 were photographed by James MacKinnon. Photographs numbered 224-226 include military personnel. Various other photographers are represented in the collection.

Series II: These images were scanned and printed from nitrate negatives housed in five Eastman Negative Albums. The images were taken in Juneau, Sitka, Ketchikan, Warm Springs Bay, Tracy Arm, and other locations in Southeast Alaska. The Salmon Creek dam, Juneau baseball park, the Greek Church in Sitka, totem poles, ships, and people are depicted.

Other MacKinnon collections include PCA 80 and PCA 96.
