BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schott and daughter Clyda lived many years in Alaska. Louis went to Wrangell in 1887 to operate R.D. Hume's Cannery with Bob Bell. When the Alaska Packer's Association organized in 1890 or 1891, Louis Schott went to work for them and was superintendent at Karluk, Alaska, until 1908, Alitak on Kodiak Island until 1911, and then he returned to Wrangell as superintendent of the Point Highfield Cannery. He worked for APA until his death in Wrangell in 1926.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

The photographs in this collection were accumulated during the years Louis Schott lived in Alaska. They include views of Alaska Packers Association canneries where Louis Schott worked and many photographs by J.E. Thwaites.

Clyda Schott Greely received a number of photographs from J.E. Thwaites, a family friend. Notes from Thwaites are on some of the photographs sent to her, and he also made suggestions to her regarding her own photography efforts.

The collection includes views with the following photographer/identification: J.E. Thwaites, P.S. Hunt, J.E. Worden, Lomen, Winter and Pond, Cheney, George Cantwell, W.H. Case, Basil Clemons, B.B. Dobbs, and Phil Richardson.

Also included is an album titled A BIG GAME HUNT IN ALASKA, 1918 by L. J. Petit and Dr. A.T. Holbrook. The album provides 60 views of their hunting trip up the Stikine River.

Two folders contain typescript copies of poems signed by Pat O'Cotter (Frank J. Cotter), newspaper clippings, marine engineers contract of the APA, Masonic degree certificates and eulogy for Louis Schott.

Major topics include: Alaska Packers vessels and other ships, Alaska Packers Association canneries and fishing operation, community views of Nushagak, Karluk, Seldovia, Seward, Unalaska, Dutch Harbor, Chignik, Valdez, Kodiak, Ketchikan, Wrangell, Juneau, etc., Mt. Katmai eruption, individual and group portraits of family friends, ship crews, and scenics.
