ACQUISITION: This collection of slides, prints and some negatives was donated to the library in the Fall of 1978 by Helen D. Blair of Clarksdale, Arizona. (Acc. No. 1978-021.)

ACCESS: The collection is available for viewing, however, the photographs may not be photocopied.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: The slides and photographs are individually numbered and sleeved in Mylar. An item-level inventory is available. Vol. I consists of color slides; Vol II contains black & white photographs.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Helen Smith came to Alaska in 1936 to teach school. She married George Blair and lived in Alaska from 1936-1966. George Blair died in 1952 in Juneau, where he is buried.

George Blair of Talkeetna was a trapper and big game guide. Many of the slides show hunting and mining activity in the Talkeetna area and across the Susitna River where he had claims on Dutch Creek in the foothills of Mount McKinley. There are views of people, scenics, activities, etc. at Talkeetna, Hope, Fairbanks, Valdez, Chitina, Nome, etc.

Helen Blair taught in a number of villages, and the collection includes photographs taken by her of the schools and children at Aniak, Fort Yukon, Glennallen, Crooked Creek, and other locations.

Letters received by Helen Blair from Governor Ernest Gruening, Marie Drake, Margaret Harrais and other material of Helen and George Blair form a separate collection, MS 4-4.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

Many of the slides show hunting and mining activity in the Talkeetna area and across the Susitna River where Blair had claims on Dutch Creek in the foothills of Mount McKinley. There are also views of people, landscapes, and activities, etc. at Talkeetna, Hope, Fairbanks, Valdez, Chitina, Nome, etc.

Helen Blair taught school in a number of villages, and the collection includes her photographs of the schools and children at Aniak, Fort Yukon, Glennallen, Crooked Creek, and other locations. Volume I contains 35 mm Kodachrome color slides; Volume II contains black & white photographs.
