

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Catron, H. D., Collector

H. D. Catron Photograph Collection, 1944-1949

PCA 160

Scope and Contents Note

Sheep ranch operation at Chernofski Harbor, Unalaska, with views of Catron home, Mr. and Mrs. Catron, Aleut employees, and panorama of Chernofski Harbor, 1944-1949.

Inventory

- 1 Home of Ruth and H.D. Catron. View is back of house looking northwest toward Chernofski Harbor entrance, Unalaska Island, January 20, 1949.
- 2 H. D. and Ruth Catron outside Dutch Harbor Hospital, Nov. 6, 1943.
- 3 Mr. Catron and Sheep. Chernofski Harbor, Unalaska Island.
- 4 Home of Ruth and H.D. Catron. Front view looking east. Chernofski Harbor, Unalaska Island. January 20, 1947.
- 5 H.D. Catron and the Aleuts who helped him shear sheep at his sheep ranch, Chernofski Harbor, Unalaska Island.
- 6 Cattle and ranch headquarters on Unalaska Island. Reproduced from photo by Bishop. Taken from the porch roof, Sept., 1944.
- 7 Driving cattle to the Unalaska Island ranch, Sept., 1944.

- 8 Cornelias Kudrin, right and George Borenen, left from Kaskega village, Unalaska Island, who visited Catron's once a year traveling 35 miles in the open sea in a small boat. August, 1948.
- 9 Chernofski Harbor entrance taken from above Alaska Livestock and Trading Co. buildings, February, 1946. Looking north, Mt. Aspid Crater, left.