

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Alaska State Council on the Arts

Alaska Contemporary Art Bank, Anchorage, 1975-1983

PCA 211

406 slides, 35mm, col.
32 resumes (artists)

ACQUISITION: The Georgia Blue, Contemporary Art Bank Coordinator, donated the slides November 11, 1982.

ACCESS: The collection is restricted; slides may not be copied without permission from the Art Bank

COPYRIGHT: This collection is for reference use, only. Inquiries should be made to the Alaska State Council on the Arts in Anchorage, a part of the Dept. of Education and Early Development.

PROCESSING: The slides are sleeved in Mylar. The catalog, Collection, contains a list of pieces acquired from 1975-1980. An additional list contains works acquired since the publication, until 1982.

Historical Note

The Alaska Contemporary Art Bank, a collection of over 500 works of art by Alaskan artists, was formed in 1975. Art is available for loan to state offices and Alaska's Congressional Delegation. The Contemporary Art Bank i

Scope and Content Note

The 35 mm transparencies (color and black and white) in this collection represent art pieces purchased by the State of Alaska from 1975-1983. No slides have been received since 1983.

An exhibit catalog entitled Collection describes the artwork purchased from 1975-1980 and a list is included of acquisitions added after the publication, until 1982.

Resumes of the artists represented are filed at the beginning of the collection.