Revised: 1/9/2004

ACQUISITION: The Alaska State Library acquired the Vinokouroff collection through the efforts of Antoinette Shalkop, who went to the Library of Congress from Anchorage in the 1970's to index, arrange, and microfilm the Alaska Russian Church archives. At her suggestion, Vinokouroff willed his entire collection to the State of Alaska in 1983.

ACCESS: The photographs may be viewed, however, they may not be photocopied.

COPYRIGHT: Requests for permission to reproduce the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: The collection was processed over several years, by a number of different people. Initial sorting and indexing was completed by Antoinette Shalkop. Others who worked on the project under the direction of Dr. Louise Martin include Dr. Lydia Black, Dr. Richard A. Pierce, and Abbot Herman. Senator Jalmar Kerttula also assisted. The collection was copied on microfiche.

Biographical Note

Michael Vinokourov, was born in 1894 in Yakutsk, Russia, to Fr. Zinovii and Paraskeva Prokop'eva Okhlopkova. He began to work in the public library and the Yakutian section of the Russian Geographical Society museum. In 1917, he married Anastasia Semenovna Iakushkova, who also worked in libraries, including the Ecclesiastical seminary library. In 1919, after the 1917 Boleshevik Revolution, Vinokourov, a member of the Socialist Revolutionary Party, and Anastasia were arrested and imprisoned. In 1919, they fled to Okhotsk, Japan. A year and a half later, they immigrated to Pennsylvania then moved to New York City where Anastasia gave birth to their first child, Eugenia ("Zhenia"). The same year Vinokourov began a career with the Library of Congress and moved his family to Washington, D.C. He spent his entire career with the Library of Congress, retiring in 1956. Vinokourov died in 1983, a few months after his wife. Their first daughter, Eugenia, died at age 2 and a son, George, born in 1924, committed suicide in his mid-20s. A married daughter, Elena Tidwell, is the surviving family member. [From: Michael Z. Vinokourov: a profile and inventory of his papers (MS 81) and photographs (PCA 243), L. Martin, PhD., 1986. (Notes supplied by Michelle Fortier, October 2007: Portrait of Archmandrite Sebastian Dabovich - later known as Father Sebastian - reading bible,. Born June 21, 1863 to Ilija and Jelena Dabovich in San Francisco, CA named Jovan Dabovich by his parents.

Baptized by Fr. Kyrill (Hieromonk Kyrill) in the ship's chapel on board the Russian Imperial warship "Bogatyr" which was anchored in San Francisco bay in support of President Lincoln during the civil war. Died 1940 in Zilich Serbia and buried in the Zilich monastery by Bishop Nicholai Velimiromovich (later St Nicholai Velimiromovich)

- 1887 Jovan Dabovich was tonsured a monk of the Russian Orthodox Church making him the first American born monk and renamed "Sebatian"
- 1887 Brother Sebastian was tonsured a deacon
- 1892 Fr Sebastian was ordained a priest making him a hieromonk
- 1894 Fr Sebastian blessed the first Serbian Orthodox church in America, St Sava, in Jackson CA

It is worth noting that that Fr. Sebastian founded many orthodox churches in the west, midwest and Montana and Alaska. On his tombstone was written "The first American Serbian Orthodox Apostle"

Archmandrite Sebastian Dabovich was disinterred from his resting place in Serbia in August 2007. He was transported to Jackson California where he was again laid to rest in the church of St Sava which he founded back in 1894. He is considered a candidate for canonization <sainthood>)
