Black, Charles N.

Charles N. Black Photograph Collection, 1919

PCA 254

1 album (20 photographs, b&w)

ACQUISITION: The Alaska State Museum transferred the leather bound album to the Library June 26, 1985. The Museum received the collection from David T. Brown, great-grandson of Mr. Black.

ACCESS: The photographs may be viewed, however, they may not be photocopied.

COPYRIGHT: Requests for permission to publish or reproduce images from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: The album is intact and housed in an acid-neutral box.

Scope and Contents Note

The album belonged to Charles Newbold Black of San Francisco and may have been a souvenir of a hunting trip taken in Southeast Alaska in 1919. The majority of the photos were probably taken by Winter and Pond, early Juneau photographers; however only five are signed. Mostly scenics, the subjects include Thane, Alaska, Perseverance Mine, fishing, fish processing, the yacht "Aquila," and others.
