

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Molyneux, John ("Jack") Chandley, photographer

Jack Molyneux Photograph Collection, 1940 - 1954

PCA 347

45 views
.5 inches

Processed: 1994
By: India Spartz

ACQUISITION: The negatives to these views were donated by Mr. Molyneux's daughter, Jodi Molyneux-Simpson of Seattle, Washington. (Acc. No. 1993-014.)

ACCESS: The photos may be viewed, however, they may not be photocopied.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: The photographs are numbered and placed in Mylar inserts. No finding aid is available.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Jack Molyneux was born in Earlestown, England and came to the U.S.A. in 1923. He married Grace Molieue [?] Crossland in 1930 and had 2 children, Joan Diane and Michael Allen. While employed as a salesman for Brodie Restaurant and Bar Supply and other food suppliers, he traveled to rural Alaska with Bob Wien and other bush pilots. He and his family lived in Alaska twice between 1940-54.