Newton, Luella Provost

Luella Provost Newton Photograph Album, ca. 1899-1912

PCA 405

408 photographs (2 photograph albums)

Processed: October 1999

By: Tahitia Orr

Acquisition: Shirley Merl Newton of Pequot Lakes, Minnesota, granddaughter of Luella Provost Newton, donated the albums in 1999. (Acc. No. 1999-037.)

Access: The photographs may be viewed, however, the images may not be photocopied.

Copyright: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

Processing: Historical Collections' staff numbered the photographs. Album one was unbound and the pages were retained in original order. Album two was unbound but the front cover was retained. Album 1: Alaska (ca. 1908 to 1912) and Album 2: Minnesota (ca. 1899-1904). An item-level inventory is available.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Luella Provost Newton and her husband Charles Anselm Newton, Sr. lived in the Minneapolis/St. Paul region of Minnesota before moving to Alaska. From ca. 1908 to 1912, they lived in Fairbanks, Birch Creek and possibly Valdez. In 1904, they had a son, Charles Anselm Newton, Jr. The Newtons mined in Fairbanks. They also brought the first linotype to Fairbanks from Auburn, Washington.

The Alaska-Yukon Gazetteer shows Charles Anselm Newton, Sr. working as an operator at the Daily News-Miner on 9th Ave. in Fairbanks from 1909-1910 and as an operator at the Tanana Publishing Co. in Fairbanks from 1911-1912.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

The collection consists of photographs from two albums. The original order of the albums was retained however they were unbound due to deterioration. Photographs from Album One reflect, primarily, the Minneapolis/St. Paul region of Minnesota. It appears to begin with Luella Provost Newton's pre-marriage life, prior to 1899, and continues into her married life. Friends and family are shown, including a few post-1899 Alaska images. Album Two was collected during Luella Newton's married life in Alaska and includes images of friends, Charles Anselm Newton, Jr. and the environs of Fairbanks and Birch Creek. Includes images of the Iditarod Pioneer office, Valdez Trail and spring breakup in the Fairbanks area, 1909.
