Guide to Collection

Dahlstrom, Maynard C.

Maynard C. Dahlstrom Photograph Collection, ca. 1947-1994 (bulk 1947-1977)

PCA 414

6 linear ft. (11 boxes)

Processed by: Mary Claire Harris
Gladi Kulp
2002-2004, 2005

ACQUISITION: The collection was donated by Maynard Dahlstrom's family, Patricia Loehlein, Mary Ellen Ross, et. al., in August 2000 (Acc. no. 2000-50).

ACCESS: The collection is available for viewing, however, the photographs may not be photocopied.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: Any perceived original order was retained, e.g., numbers stamped on slides. Slides were removed from wooden boxes and housed in mylar sheets. As there was no order to the prints, they were grouped by subject and location. Three slide trays of slides were returned to ASL by the Discovery Channel in August 2004. Two trays were labeled Walrus Hunt, 1953 and one tray was labeled Fur Rendezvous, 1950's. Slides were added according to numbers stamped on the slides. Photographs were added as P1031-P1077.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Maynard Chester Dahlstrom was born in Red Wing MN on Christmas Day 1920. His parents, Charles and Margaret were prevented from getting to the hospital by a blizzard. His mother died when he was 12 and his father remarried several years later. He graduated from Central High School in Minneapolis? ca. 1937 and served in the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) until he was 21. The CCC provided training in photography and mechanics. He was a mechanic for Northwest Airlines when World War II began.

Maynard Dahlstrom was classified 4-F by his draft board but he wanted to support the war effort. The U.S. Army Air Force offered him the opportunity to serve as a civilian aircraft mechanic in either Alaska or Hawaii. He chose Alaska and was sent to Elmendorf Air Force Base in Anchorage, ca. 1942. He stayed in this position for about 30 years and lived in the Anchorage area until the 1970s.

Dahlstrom's great interest was photography. He was a member of the Adventurers Club, a hiking and photography group. He took photos of everything in his world including World War II vintage aircraft at Elmendorf Air Force Base, street scenes, wildlife and flowers and outdoor scenics. Images of McKinley Park and other interior locations were taken while on excursions with the Alaskan Trails Club [Adventurers Travel Club?] of which he was a charter member. He told friends of a whale-walrus-seal hunt on the Bering Sea. The trip was particularly memorable because a defector stole a boat from their hunting party and went to Russia. He also attended an oil painting class at Anchorage Community College.

Maynard Dahlstrom took early retirement from the U.S. Air Force in 1975 and soon thereafter moved back to Red Wing MN. He was a member of the Red Wing Camera Club. In his later years he regaled friends and acquaintances with stories of his adventures in Alaska. He died June 2000 in Red Wing.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

Maynard Dahlstrom's collection is a reflection of his life in Alaska. Many images reflect the trips he took with the photography club(s) - Alaskan Trails Club, Alaska Photography Club, ATP Club. Slides and prints depict flora, fauna and scenics in and around McKinley Park, walrus hunting around Little Diomed Island, moose trips, aircraft and life around World War II at Elmendorf Air Force Base near Anchorage, Fur Rendezvous (Rondy) in Anchorage, dog racing, and trips on the Alaska Highway. Locations include: Anchorage, Bird Creek Bridge, Bodenber, Carcross, Chickaloon, Chitina, Craggy Creek, Curry Lookout, Dawson City, Eklutna Flats, Elmendorf Air Force Base, Eureka Roadhouse, Fairbanks, Fern Mine, Fishhook Pass, Girdwood, Glen Highway, Goat Creek, Grandview, Granite Creek, Haines, Homer, Hope, Indian Portage, Juneau, Katmai, Kenai Peninsula, Knik Arm, Kodiak, Kotzebue, Mac's Land, Matanuska Glacier, Merrill Field, Monarch Mine, Murphy's Corner, Nenana, Pioneer Peak, Portage Glacier, Romanzoff, Sacketts Harbor, Seward, Ship Creek, Skagway, Spring Creek Lodge, Turnagain Arm, Valdez, Virgin Creek Trail, Whitehorse. Some non-Alaska images are also included.

INVENTORY

BOXES 1-3

Slides

Slides are organized by stamped numbers probably given by Dahlstrom as each group of slides was developed. At times he also stamped places and dates on the slides. Other numbers were probably for slide shows he gave after moving back to Red Wing MN in his later years. Slides are listed in groups. Some numbers may be missing; they were never received or were borrowed by the Discovery Channel for a documentary on his life [6/3/2004 – not yet returned] Discovery Channel returned slides, 8/2004; added to inventory .[See Master file for numbers.] Slip notes = paper notes in slide boxes.
