HISTORICAL NOTE

From: Thursday, October 9, 1919, Lawrence Daily Journal-World; Lawrence, Kansas, Ten pages, Part One, Volume LXIII, Number 242, Page 1.

“BACK FROM ALASKA. C. D. Bunker Brings Back Many New Specimens From the North.

C. D. Bunker, assistant curator in charge of birds and mammals in Dyche museum, returned last week from a hunting trip in Alaska, a party of six, four of whom were old K. U. men. Dr. John Outland of Kansas City, an old K. U. football man; Dr. James Masson, a K. U. man on the Mayo Brothers general staff at Rochester, Minn.; Dr. Raymond Teal [Teale] of Palco and Raymond DeLano of Kansas City, Mo., were the other members of the party.

A number of white sheep, moose and white and brown bear were killed and shipped back to Lawrence for the museum. Five barrels of skins, a large crate of moose heads and a box of skeletons and bones were secured by Mr. Bunker in the Mount McKinley region.”
