McNeil, Charles H. [Henry]

Charles H. McNeil Photograph Collection, ca. 1904-1961

PCA 442

One 5 ½" box photographs

Processed by: Kay Shelton
June 2003

ACQUISITION: The Charles H. McNeil manuscript and photograph collection consists of donations from family members and researchers: Eleanor Brown (Acc.#2003-15) with photocopies of the Brown papers held by Janet Klein, Joanne E. Sargent Wolverton (Acc. # 2003-16), and photocopies of the Rexford Peterson genealogy and family photographs made available by Lake Clark National Park (Acc. #2003-17).

ACCESS: The collection is available for viewing, however, the photographs may not be photocopied. The McNeil-Sargent-Wolverton album is also on CD-ROM.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: The Brown donation was compared to photocopies made in the mid-1990s by researcher Janet Klein. Any original not received by the Library was copied from the Klein materials and its source noted.

The McNeil-Sargent-Wolverton albums were loaned for duplication. The albums were digitally photographed; also prints and 4 x 5" negatives were produced for selected images. The prints and negatives were numbered and housed in mylar. Letters in the scrapbook were photocopied on acid-free paper and placed in a file folder in the photograph collection.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

- 12/20/1948 Charles H. McNeil dies in Atascadero, CA
- 1950-1960s Elbert E. Sargent lives in Alaska and with daughter Joanne explores Iliamna and Kamishak mining district.

--Includes information contributed by donors Eleanor Brown, Rex Peterson, and Joanne E. Sargent Wolverton as well as researchers John Branson, Janet Klein, and Tom Walker (in his article "Charlie McNeil: explorer, miner, businessman," Anchorage Daily News. WE ALASKANS, September 6, 1992, p. K-5).

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

The Charlie H. McNeil collection is a gathering of family records contributed by several branches of Charlie McNeil descendants. The collection--photographs, legal documents, letters, and ephemera--reflects his time in Alaska from 1898 through 1924 and includes evidence of his residence at Iliamna, his prospecting activities – gold, copper, and oil and gas and other money-making activities – stream watchman at Chenik, hunter and trapper. The collection is comprised of manuscript and photograph collections (MS 202 and PCA 442) and then arranged under the donor name:

- Brown Donation (MS202, folders 1-6, and PCA 442, folder 10)
- Sargent-Wolverton Donation of photograph albums (PCA 442, Folders 1-9)
- Rex Peterson Donation of family images and genealogy notes (photocopies, MS202, Folder 7).

(Sargent-Wolverton Donation, Folders 1-7; Brown Donation, Folder 8)

Summary

Folder 1: McNeil-Sargent-Wolverton Albums: Printouts of “.jpgs” of all pages from CD-Rom.

Folder 2: McNeil-Sargent-Wolverton Albums: Photocopies of “notes” by Joanne S. Wolverton

Folder 3: McNeil-Sargent-Wolverton Albums: Photocopies of letters from pages 95 – 109.

Folders 4-7: McNeil-Sargent-Wolverton Albums: Prints of 108 selected images from the albums

Folders 8-9: McNeil-Sargent-Wolverton Albums: Study prints of 67 additional album images

Folder 10: Eleanor Brown Donation: Images PCA 442-#109 -# 121 --Charles H. McNeil.

Folders 1-9: McNeil-Sargent-Wolverton Albums

(A table of images begins after the Folder 10 listing of the Brown donation.)

Two albums--a “red album” and a “black album”-- combine images from Charles H. McNeil and his nephew Elbert E. Sargent. Approximately one half represent Charles H. McNeil and span the years, 1904 - 1921. These depict the country around Kodiak, Kamishak Bay, Kvichak Bay, and Iliamna Camp, showing Alaska Natives, McNeil’s camping, fishing and mining activities as well as family photographs from McNeil’s California days. The other half documents Elbert E. Sargent’s excursions to Iliamna Bay via steamship in 1947 (with Floyd Henny) and airplane in 1948 (with son-in-law Manuel Hollie) and in 1961 (with son-in-law Bob Wolverton and others). Subjects include life on board ship and images of communities along the route such as Valdez, Seward, Kodiak, Seldovia, Anchorage, and Southeast's inside passage as well as their exploration, hunting and fishing in the Iliamna region.

Folders 2 and 3 contain written materials found in the albums: notes from Joanne Sargent Wolverton about her father E.E. Sargent's time in Alaska in the 1950s-1960s and letters from Charles H. McNeil written in the 1940s recounting his days in Alaska.

Folder 1: CD-Rom with images of full pages from album; black and white printouts of images, numbered according to scan and not actual page number.

Folder 2: Photocopies of notes by Joanne Sargent Wolverton who writes about her family's time in Alaska and father Elbert E. Sargent's explorations of the Iliamna country in the 1950s and 1960s.

Folder 3: Photocopies of letters written in the 1940s by Charles H. McNeil to Elbert E. Sargent about his time in Alaska, especially his prospecting for gold and copper.

Folders 4 - 7: McNeil-Sargent-Wolverton Albums: 108 images: photograph copies from the originals. [4" x 5" copy negatives available]

Folders 8-9: McNeil-Sargent-Wolverton Album: 64 additional images printed from ".tif" files of scanned images not in Folders 4-7.

Folder 10: Brown Donation (thirteen images)
