78 negatives & scans
331 b&w prints
~150 original negatives

Processed by: Gladi Kulp, April 2004
Processed by: Jacki Swearingen, Dec. 2015

ACQUISITION: 78 negatives were donated by Clinton H. Betz of Seattle in 2003. Acc. #2003-058. An addition of 331 b&w 8x10 prints and approximately 150 original negatives was transferred from the Puget Sound Maritime Historical Society to the Alaska State Library Historical Collections October 31, 2013. Acc. #2013-051.

ACCESS: The collection is available for viewing; scans from negatives may be photocopied.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: The initial donation of 78 negatives was scanned, numbered and housed in mylar. Descriptions were taken from donor-labeled negative envelopes. The additional donation of 8x10 b&w prints was arranged by year and month. The prints were numbered and their descriptions were added to the inventory. Descriptions were taken from information written on the back of the print. The prints were placed in acid free folders. The negatives donated with the prints have been placed in the freezer.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Clinton H. Betz spent about two years in Anchorage, 1943-1944, working as a cryptographer for the Alaska Communications System. Mr. Betz had a lifelong interest in the maritime field, photographing ships along the Pacific Coast. He took many photographs while working for the Alaska Communications System and while on trips on the SS Aleutian in Southeast Alaska and on the SS Denali sailing to Anchorage.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

The photographs were taken by Clinton Betz during his time in Alaska, 1943-1944. Images include buildings in Anchorage, railroad engines and stations, canneries, fishing boats, Alaska Railroad scenes and equipment, and photos taken during a trip from Anchorage to Seward - includes Matanuska Valley and Glacier, Kenai Peninsula, Portage Glacier, Spencer Glacier, Bartlett Glacier, Turnagain Arm, Palmer Highway and bridge, Girdwood, Pioneer Peak, Kenai Lake, Mt. Susitna, Cook Inlet and Knik Arm.

The 8x10 b&w prints were taken by Mr. Betz during the following time spent in Alaska and Canada:

Alaska trip, July 1937, Southeastern, SS Aleutian
 Alaska, 1943 & 1944, ACS[Alaska Communications System], Alaska Duty
 Alaska trip, 1954. June 4-June 16 to Anchorage and return, SS Denali,
 Northern British Columbia trip, June 1955, SS Camosun.

INVENTORY

Negatives were scanned and numbered. Descriptions written by donor on negative envelopes are listed below. Numbers in parentheses are donor's numbers, i.e., (no. 2). The negatives have been placed in the negative file cabinet in the cooler room.
