

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

United States. Army. Corps of Engineers. Alaska District.

Construction of Alaska National Guard armories in Alaskan villages [graphic], 1959

PCA 470

24 b&w photos.

Processed by: James Simard
2007

ACQUISITION: Accession # 150-75.

ACCESS: The collection is unrestricted.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

Collection consists of 24 b&w photos of Eskimo National Guard members and construction of armories in the following Alaska villages: Alakanuk, Arctic Village, Hooper Bay, Koyuk, Noorvik, Shaktoolik, Shishmaref, St. Michael, Teller, Unalakleet. Members of the U.S. Army Engineer District, Alaska, Western Alaska Residency assisted members of the Alaska Eskimo Scouts Battalion in constructing 48 prefabricated metal buildings, which would serve as armories in remote northern Alaska villages.

Includes armory bid notices and news releases issued by the U.S. Army Engineer District, Alaska.

SUBJECTS

Alaska. National Guard.

Armories--Alaska--Design and construction--Photographs.

Villages--Alaska--Photographs.

Eskimos--Alaska--Photographs.

Alaska--Buildings, structures, etc.--Photographs.