

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Anderson, Kristin

Tom Anderson Photograph Collection, 1932

PCA 512

1 box
58 3 1/2x5' b&w photographic negatives
19 2' b&w negatives
b&w photographic prints
b&w photographic slides

Processed by: Anastasia Tarmann, June 2009

ACQUISITION: The collection was donated by Kristin Anderson, daughter of the collector, in July 2006. Acc. # 2006-25. In 1998 the late Helane Anderson, Tom Anderson's spouse, met with Steve Henrikson [curator at the State of Alaska museum] regarding objects acquired during Tom Anderson's trip to Alaska. The objects were sent to the museum.

ACCESS: The collection is unrestricted.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: This collection has been described at the folder level. Original order maintained. The negatives and slides arrived sleeved and all items arrived in an archival quality box. Photo stills are possibly secondhand images taken of film shots. ASL Historical Collections holds a copy of Shiyak at SH348. A55.

BIO or HISTORICAL NOTE

Tom Anderson was a professional writer/editor for newspaper and magazines for more than 30 years before he wrote Shiyak, his first book-length work.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

Photographs of 1932 trip to the Kuskokwim River via Windjammer used in Tom Anderson's book, Shiyak, published in 1987. Film still, negatives and slides made from an original film about the trip. San Francisco and Alaska content.

SUBJECTS

Southeast Alaska, Alaskan coast, Windjammer, Fishing, Depression era, United States, Kuskokwim River, Alaska, Salmon fishing, Sea adventure.

INVENTORY

No inventory