BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

In fall of 1949, Clifford and Myrtle Hall went to teach in Kiana with their two sons Eugene (Gene) and Theodore (Ted or Teddy). Clifford became ill and the family returned to the United States on April 5th, 1951. Clifford died on May 26, 1951. After Clifford's death, Myrtle, Theodore, and Eugene returned to White Mountain for two years. Later they lived in Sitka, where Myrtle worked at Mt. Edgecumbe in the TB sanatorium for approximately six years. In June of 1958, Myrtle married Rex King who adopted her sons, and changed their names from Hall to King. The family left Alaska in 1959. The slide images were taken and described mostly by Myrtle. She died October 28, 2012, just before her 94th Birthday.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

306 b&w photographic print images and 532 color slide images of Kiana and White Mountain, Juneau, Sitka, Point Hope, Kotzebue and other areas of Alaska from 1949-1959, with the bulk from 1950-1955. In addition, personal postcards and newspaper clippings in the collection provide information about scenery, education in Alaska at the time, TB, and families featured in the images. The collection also includes digital copies of photographs and newspaper clippings featured in the collection.

Kodachrome transparency color slides are mainly of the Kiana and White Mountain area, Juneau, Sitka, and Mount Edgecumbe, with some of Kanakanak & Whitehorse, Point Hope and Kotzebue.
