This collection is an album inherited by me. It originally belonged to Chester Clifton Liebing and his wife, Mary (Vail) of Knik AK.
Mary was from an old homesteading family in the Wasilla area.

Chet moved to the Susitna Valley in the mid 1930s. He lived along the creek (next to the current Knik Goose Bay Road) in Knik, where he operated a dog-sled freight business to the gold mines of the Talkeetna mountains. (Independence, Lucky Shot, Gold Cord, etc.) Most of these pictures are of the Independence Mine / Hatcher Pass area. Some are of Knik and or Wasilla.

Particularly interesting is the lightening strike.

I believe the first pages of this album are from the 1918 or 1919 trip from Seattle to Craig, AK, on the Aloha fishing vessel, owned by Clyde.

Later photos are from the Seattle & Bellingham areas. From 1923-1932, Clyde had various jobs in Washington, ranging from logging Vashon Island to working in a furniture factory in Bellingham to managing an apartment bldg in Seattle. He owed a 2½ acre farm on Beacon Hill, Seattle, which he sold in 1932 in order to return to AK.

Craig, AK

In 1918 or 19 — Clyde Vane King, with wife, Emma Katherine (Corron) King and children Ara Belle and Clyde Vernon in the fishing boat Aloha, and Kent & Clara (Proxdit) King, pregnant with son John (or him as infant) aboard the Tomboy, came to Craig, AK from Washington State.

After about a year Clyde gave up fishing & bought the gen. store. These pictures are of this trip and their 3 years in Craig.

These are photos taken of or from the Ready Bullion mine (Hatcher Pass area) of what is now the Matanuska-Susitna Borough. They were probably taken by Clyde Vane Kinzor Ara Belle King Black.

The mine was owned & operated by Ara Belle's husband, Sydney Elkhorn Black (b. 1906 in Council near Nome — & whose parents had homesteaded Black Lake (now Lon) the Parks Hwy near Wasilla)
