

Information Alert Service

Need current information on a specific topic? Sign up for Information Alerts. The Alaska State Library's free Information Alerts and Federal Legislation and Regulation tracking allow state employees from every branch of state government to receive customized weekly updates on issues relevant to their work at their desktop.

Drawing on many databases of newspapers, journals, legislation, and regulations, Information Alerts provide the information you need. Fill out our registration page according to your needs and current information on your subject will arrive in your email account on a regular basis.

Signing up for Info Alerts or Federal Legislation and Regulation tracking is easy. Information and registration pages for both are available under Government Services at our website, www.library.state.ak.us. Our library staff will be happy to help you with the registration process or to answer any other questions you may have, Call us at 465-2920.
