LEGISLATIVE LIBRARY ACCOUNT

An agency library account has been provided for each representative at the Alaska State Library.

Our standard practice is to allow your staff and pages to check out materials for you and to access your account for holds, renewals, etc. If you would prefer to limit access to this account, please contact us at 465-2920.

You may also request a Capital City Libraries (CCL) card for your personal use.

Contact us at 465-2920 or asl@alaska.gov for more information or assistance.

CONVENIENT

Find full-text articles, e-books, and reference sources through our website. Library staff provides in-depth research assistance via e-mail or by telephone.

CURRENT

Receive the news as it happens with Information Alerts and Table of Content services. We subscribe to Alaska newspapers and key national titles.

COMPLETE

We provide access to thousands of full-text books in a wide range of academic and technical subject areas. If we don't have it we will get it for you.

LAW & GOVERNMENT DATABASES
