Author of Bristol Bay Summer

I was coming to the Library to research my next book, a biography of Elizabeth Peratrovich. Historical Librarian, Anastasia Tarmann, assisted me and was excited to learn about Bristol Bay Summer. She felt the book's depiction of the Bristol Bay/setnet fishing culture was a perfect fit for the Historical Libraries Summer Lecture Series. Bristol Bay Summer is a coming-of-age, Alaska adventure story set against the backdrop of the Bristol Bay fishery and targeted for middle-grade readers. The Alaska State Historical Library Lecture Series was the perfect venue for a more in-depth presentation than would be possible at the typical bookstore 'book talk.' The library gave me access to an especially thoughtful and knowledgeable audience. Approximately 25 people attended, this provided a professional yet intimate environment for a presentation. This was my first presentation on Bristol Bay Summer, and I couldn't have asked for a more supportive environment. The staff were professional and extremely helpful and the space was perfect.
