FALL 2013

INTRODUCTION TO THE ALASKA STATE LIBRARY

Open to State Employees
August 21, 12:15 - 1pm
Offered every 3rd Wednesday of the month
Instructor: Freya Anderson

Never again pay $50 for 24-hour access to an article. Don't make do with unauthoritative resources because they're all you can find from a quick Google search. You need accurate, reliable, timely information on research, regulations, news and more, to do the best job possible for Alaskans. We can help. Find out how.

FINDING ARTICLES

Open to all
September 3, 12:15 - 1pm
Instructor: Katie Fearer

Tired of that annoying "pay to download" link often accompanying online articles? In this webinar, we'll show you how to avoid it and still acquire the articles you need for your work. We'll introduce you to several of our most popular research tools including Journal Finder, EBSCOHost Research Databases and our new Find Everything service. We'll also cover Google Scholar, ScienceDirect, JSTOR and the Alaska State Library's interlibrary loan service.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Open to all
September 16, 12:15 - 1pm & 4 - 5pm
Instructor: Freya Anderson

Find out about the fun and easy resources available to learn a foreign language, plus English as a second language. Mango Languages is one popular option, but there are others as well. We'll also talk about free practice and tutor options, games and foreign news sites.

FREE IMAGES

Open to all
October 8, 12:15 - 1pm
Instructor: Julie Niederhauser

Looking for free, high-quality images to add to your publication or newsletter? In this webinar we'll review and discuss copyright, public domain, royalty free and license agreements. We'll also introduce you to government and commercial sources of royalty free and/or public domain images and show you how to properly cite image sources.

MAKING THE LIBRARY CATALOG SING & DANCE

Open to all
October 23, 12:15 - 1pm
Instructor: Maeghan Kearney

Not sure how to get started using the new library catalog? Just want your book already? During this webinar, we'll explore our new library catalog, which now provides access to over 1 million items in libraries throughout Juneau and southcentral Alaska. Join us for an overview of our new joint-library services; learn how to navigate the catalog and find the books you want.

SMALL BUSINESS RESOURCES

Open to all
November 6, 12:15 - 1pm
Instructor: Julie Niederhauser

Are you ready to turn your dream of owning and operating a small business in Alaska into a reality? Join us as we explore some of the resources available from the Small Business Assistance Center. We'll locate sources of start-up capital, find out what's needed in a successful business plan, and access marketing information.

DATABASES BY ALASKANS

Open to all; priority given to State Employees
November 13, 12:15 - 1pm
Instructor: Katie Fearer

Looking for childcare? Want to learn more about the quality of a local water source? No? Perhaps you'd like basic information about schools or recorded land records. No matter your Alaska-related information need, chances are good that a state agency has put that information in a database. In this webinar, we'll introduce you to some Alaska agency databases available, and demonstrate a few of them in-depth.
