

00:15 to: Jedediah

Hello Julie

00:29 to: Karla Barkman

Teachers don't seem to have any issues, which leads me to believe it is something on our end.

00:36 to: Karla Barkman

Thought you could tell me something that might help.

03:37 to: Julie Niederhauser

<http://sled.alaska.edu/>

06:01 to: Jedediah

can students log in from home?

07:25 to: Jedediah

great! thanks!

13:34 to: Jedediah

Hi I work at a public library in Haines, AK

13:35 to: Katie Sanders

So, back in February of 2014 we were given an Alaska educator code to sign up for BrainPop educator. Is that still available to all?

14:37 to: Julie Niederhauser

To request a password in Alaska, call 1-800-440-2919

Need more help with your password? Visit Alaska Library Network.

14:50 to: Katie Sanders

OK... I'll have to ask our teachers as I've not heard anyone complain about it NOT being available.

15:08 to: Karla Barkman

I have not heard anything about Educator either.

15:11 to: Katie Sanders

I'll look into it.

15:18 to: Karla Barkman

From my teachers that is.

16:30 to: Karla Barkman

Do we still have access to BrainPop webinars or is that part of BrainPop Educator?

16:58 to: Karla Barkman

Good point.

17:52 to: Karla Barkman

I'm good. I appreciate all your efforts to keep in touch with school librarians. Thank you.

17:53 to: Katie Sanders

Is BrainPop getting good usage? Is there any danger of losing it as a State Database?

18:58 to: LAM

<http://library.alaska.gov/is/digitalLearning1.aspx>

20:56 to: Katie Sanders

If we can get statistics to share with administrators and the voting public that would be useful.

21:16 to: Karla Barkman

I always promote Live Homework Help.

21:32 to: Karla Barkman

A lot of our secondary folks like Student Resources in Context as well.

21:44 to: Katie Sanders

We try to promote all of the K-12 relevant databases.

21:57 to: Jedediah

The most common use I've seen is referencing the repair manuals

22:29 to: Jedediah

we have just started to hear about brain pop from the children in the last month or so.

22:39 to: Jedediah

but it seems to be gaining in popularity here

24:37 to: LAM

<http://library.alaska.gov/is/digitalLearning1.aspx>

24:52 to: Karla Barkman

I will be there as well as 4 other librarians from the Kenai.

24:58 to: LAM

<http://www.akla.org/juneau2015>

25:01 to: Karla Barkman

From the school district that is.

25:07 to: Katie Sanders

We have about ten school library staff planning to attend.

25:09 to: Jedediah

Our childrens librarian, Holly Davis is attending.

25:15 to: LAM

Great to have school librarians coming.

25:21 to: Beth Skow - Palmer Public Library

No one from Palmer Public this year

25:23 to: Karla Barkman

Looks like a lot of good sessions.

26:05 to: Karla Barkman

I plan to attend your preconference session.

26:54 to: Karla Barkman

Sorry to say, I have to leave. Have a class to get to in 13 minutes. Thank you for the session.

27:11 to: Jedediah

I am curious what kinds of community promotion for SLED people have been having success with.

27:12 to: Karla Barkman

See you in Juneau.

28:11 to: Jedediah

Here most of our success is straight referrals to particular sled tools in answer to a question from a patron.

28:34 to: Jedediah

techservices@haineslibrary.org

28:35 to: Jedediah

thanks

31:03 to: Katie Sanders

We just highlight them every opportunity we get to talk to patrons, be they teachers or students.

31:19 to: LAM

<http://alaskalibrarynetwork.org/services/products-services/brochures-bookmarks/>

31:26 to: Jedediah

thank you, we have had some of those paper promotional materials in the past as well. It seems a fair portion of our community is not all that web savy and need some form of more personal touch to get them involved or interested.

31:26 to: Jedediah

31:34 to: Jedediah

great

31:39 to: Beth Skow - Palmer Public Library

We use the databases in our reading program in scavenger hunts.

31:44 to: Julie Niederhauser

<http://lam.alaska.gov/librarydirectortoolkit>

31:56 to: Jedediah

thanks Katie. Beth that's a great idea!

32:05 to: Beth Skow - Palmer Public Library

had teen events that do the same. the teens like having laptops to look things up and hopefully they find ways to actually then use them.

33:22 to: Katie Sanders

Years ago when Barrow had their "question of the day" program which led students/patrons part way into SLED resources and they let them search answers for questions...I thought that was a great way to get folks to try databases they might not ever look at otherwise. We've encouraged our school library staff to develop their own "question of the week" modeled on this concept.

33:22 to: Katie Sanders

33:35 to: LAM

http://lam.alaska.gov/professional\_library\_development - links to EBSCOhost training videos. Julie has a bunch of other great stuff there.

34:00 to: LAM

Good idea - Katie

34:30 to: Jedediah

all good ideas to be shared with my team! Thanks.

34:54 to: LAM

<http://library.alaska.gov/srp/home.html#teenvideo>

36:53 to: Katie Sanders

I appreciate the information on BrainPop AND everything else. I do need to run but thank you for inviting us.

37:03 to: LAM

Thanks Katie!

37:25 to: Jedediah

Yes, thanks every one! This has been great information.

37:31 to: Beth Skow - Palmer Public Library

Not at this time. thanks for all the support

37:40 to: LAM

Thanks Beth!