

Map of Bristol Bay, compiled by Alaska Packers Association from sketches made by its employees. Base map U.S. Coast & Geodetic Survey Chart #8800. Scale: 1/300,000. The Alaska Packers Association has machine shops at all its canneries, and during the summer, free medical attendance and medicines for all employees and natives at Nushagak, Kookstun, and Aknek. The A.P.A. Telephone lines are shown thus: Main line - - - - - Local line - - - - - Soundings give the depth in fathoms. Magnetic variation in 1900 was 23°20' Easterly. Tides: Nushagak Bay h m Local established approximate 0 53 Rise and fall approximate 24 ft. Bureau of Fisheries, Feb. 1907 - Traced by W. F. H.

MAP OF BRISTOL BAY
Compiled by
ALASKA PACKERS ASSOCIATION
From sketches made by its employees
Base map U.S. Coast & Geodetic Survey Chart #8800

The Alaska Packers Association has machine shops at all its canneries, and during the summer, free medical attendance and medicines for all employees and natives at Nushagak, Kookstun, and Aknek. The A.P.A. Telephone Lines are shown thus: Main Line - - - - - Local Line - - - - - Soundings give the depth in fathoms. Magnetic variation in 1900 was 23°20' Easterly. Tides: Nushagak Bay h m Local established approximate 0 53 Rise and fall approximate 24 ft.