ETOLIN

1818-1845

(Adolph Karlovich)

Was Gov. of Russ.-Am. colonies in 1841-1845 and first went to the colony from Russia with Golofnin in the "Kamchatka", leaving Cronstadt on Aug. 26, 1817, and arriving in Petropavlovsk on May 3, 1818. At least Grewingk so states, and is followed by Dall; but Golofnin in his voyage gives a list of all his ship's company, to the number of 138, and Etolin's name is not in that list.

Etolin, Khromchenko, and Vasilief were engaged in surveying and exploring Bering sea in 1822-1824. In 1839 he sailed from Cronstadt for the colonies, in command of the Russ. Am. Co.'s ship "Nikolai". With him went Kupreanof, Woewodski, and Dr. Blashke.

In 1833 he surveyed Tamgas harbor and Kaigani Str.
