3/14/1956---Witnesses against Krause in court trial were:
Nick King, Tom Williamson, Tom Smith, Fred Fisk, L.B. Adsit, Dave Pelo, Mrs Christie, J.B. Marshall, J.W. Bell.

Wm. Christie, who later disappeared. First witness will be Nick King, whom Krause allegedly first spoke to and asked how to find Christie.

4/30/1916 Krause found guilty of kidnapping Wm. Christie of Treadwell. Next charge taken up will be using mails to send forged mortgage from Van. B.C. to Juneau. Also the Grand Jury returned two more true bills against Krause—charging that he killed Y. Yamamamoto and Capt. James O. Plunket...

5/2/1916 Krause given 24 hrs. to enter plea to six indictments involving charges of forgery, robbery, fraudulent use of mails and two for first degree murder. He has already been found guilty of kidnapping Wm. Christie and is charged with deaths of Capt. Plunkett & Y. Yamamoto/
Emp. 4/21/1916  The courtroom doors have been thrown open so persons undable to get inside can hear the testimony in the trial of Edw. Krause, accused of kidnapping Wm. Christie of Treadwell. Govt. today quizzed H.P. Crowder and traced Krause's actions from the time he appeared at the 700 mill and asked for Christie to the hour when Krause boat was noticed anchored in the Channel above Juneau.

See THE MURDER GANG by Calvin H. Barkdull in the Alaska Sportsman for Jan. 1956 pp. 6 He tells of fox farming on Sukoi Island and ends up with a yarn about Edw. Krause poaching etc.....

Emp. May, 9, 1916  Testimony in the case of Edw. Krause, charged with fraudulent use of the U.S. mails, resumed today with no sensational revelations. Krause continued to maintain his baffling poise and apparent indifference to public opinion. The court-room was filled to capacity Emp. May, 12, 1916  Krause's attorney says he will file a motion for change of venue to Ketchikan. Krause was indicted this morning on two murder counts and pleaded not guilty. He was accused of murdering Capt. J.O. Plunkett and K. Yamamoto. He will also be tried later for forgery robbery, and serving a phony subpoena on Wm Christie, whom Krause was found guilty of kidnapping.

5/16/1916—Trial of Krause on charges of forgery began today. He is accused of twice forging the name of K. Yamamoto on business documents in an effort to obtain money.

"is one of the three men Krause is believed to have murdered.

May 19, 1916 Jury in forgery trial of Krause deliberated all night but failed to reach a verdict by morning. It was reported the jury was deadlocked 6 to 6. Next case against him is on charge of murdering Capt. James O.Plunkett near Hobart Bay last summer.

5/22/1916 Krause found guilty on one count of forgery and not guilty on another. He will next be tried on murder of Plunkett. Judge excused all members of jury but Johnny Lund, Grant W. Johnson, C.H.Passelés and Ben Hersey.
Edw. Krause was sentenced to 3 years for impersonating an officer and 10 years for kidnapping Wm. Christie. Sentences were not pronounced on two other convictions. The impersonation occurred last Oct. when Krause used a phony subpoena to lure Christie away from his Treadwell home. The second charge resulted from the first. Both sentences are to begin immediately.

D.A. Disp. 8/14/1916 VG Water glass would find bodies of Krauses' victims....
