ACQUISITION: Agnes Swineford Shattuck donated the album and 26 duplicate photographs to the Alaska Historical Library January, 1979. The album documents an inspection trip taken by Governor Alfred P. Swineford aboard the Revenue Cutter Service Thetis during the summer of 1888, which took four months and covered 10,000 miles of Alaska coastline. Governor Swineford collected the photographs. Other Shattuck/Swineford collections include PCA 424, MS 150.

ACCESS: The collection is available for viewing, however, the photographs may not be photocopied.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: The album is intact and the photographs are individually numbered. The album boards are interleaved with tissue. The duplicate photographs, mounted on Bristol board, are sleeved in Mylar. The photographs are numbered. The collection is stored in archival housing.
BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Mrs. Allen Shattuck (Agnes Swineford) was born in Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 23, 1879, to Mrs. Wilhelmina ("Minnie") Smith, who later married Alfred P. Swineford. She came to Alaska in 1886, with her family when her (step) father, Alfred P. Swineford, was appointed first resident Territorial Governor of Alaska. Agnes Swineford lived in Sitka and Ketchikan until 1901, when she married Allen Shattuck of Juneau. She lived in Juneau until her husband's death in 1960. Agnes Swineford Shattuck died in San Rafael, California, on March 15, 1973. [From: Juneau Empire, 3/26/1973, MS 150.]

HISTORICAL NOTE

The Thetis, a three-masted, wooden-hulled steamer built in Scotland, was acquired by the U.S. Navy in 1884 to search for Lt. Adolphus W. Greely's polar exploration party. The Thetis made several trips to Alaska. In May, 1888, Gov. Alfred P. Swineford was among the distinguished passengers invited to visit the outlying ports of the Territory. The trip lasted four months and five days, exploring 10,000 miles of Alaskan coastline from Sitka to Point Barrow. It joined with the Revenue Cutter Bear to search for the missing schooner, the Jane Grey. The Thetis was transferred to the Revenue Cutter Service in 1899 to transport Siberian reindeer to Alaska. It served under the American flag for 32 years before becoming a sealer for the next 34 years. In 1950, the Thetis was grounded outside of St. John's, Newfoundland where it finally broke up.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

Gov. Swineford collected the photographs during his 1888 voyage aboard the Thetis. Included are views of the Thetis and its crew, Eskimos, seal harvesters, the Jane Grey, Orthodox Eastern Churches in Alaska, King Island, St. Paul Island and other Alaskan villages along the coast. The collection includes 26 duplicate photographs, mounted on Bristol board, captioned in ink. Since some of the captions differ from and provide more information than the image in the album, the information has been included in the inventory.
