Alaska Office of the Governor

Office of the Governor Photograph Collection, ca. 1959 to [ongoing]

PCA 213

Guide to Collection

Introduction:

This is an ongoing collection of photographs taken by various photographers during the time of each governor's term of office starting with the first governor after statehood, William A. Egan.

William A. Egan took the oath of office on Jan. 3, 1959, as the first governor of the new State of Alaska and served until 1966 when Walter Hickel became governor. Governor Hickel resigned in 1969 to become Secretary of Interior under President Nixon. Alaska’s Secretary of State, Keith H. Miller, became governor and served until 1970.

In 1970, William Egan was elected governor for a second term. He was succeeded by Jay Hammond who served two consecutive terms from 1974 to 1982. William (Bill) Sheffield was elected governor in 1982 and was serving when this collection was compiled.

Bill Sheffield was succeeded by Steve Cowper in 1986. Walter J. Hickel of the Alaskan Independence Party became governor in 1990 and was succeeded by Tony Knowles, who served two terms, from 1994 to 2002, when Frank H. Murkowski was elected.

The Alaska State Archives holds the official records of Alaska state government, including photographs.

Box 1 contains Volumes 1, 2 and 3. Box 2 contains the continuation of Volume 1 (Egan). Box 3 contains Volumes 4, 5 and 6.
