ACQUISITION: Donated by Charlotte Waggoner Stadtlander, Accession # 2008-028. Lantern slides, Series IV, were donated by Mary Polkowsky, Acc. # 2017-032.

ACCESS: Unrestricted

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish material from the collection must be discussed with the Librarian. Photocopying does not constitute permission to publish.

PROCESSING: The glass plate negatives and prints were scanned by a commercial photography studio. The photographic prints were removed from their original albums by the donor and arranged in subject order. They were sleeved and foldered.

The lantern slides have been sorted according to the markings which seem to indicate groups of images used in lectures. The slides have been scanned, sleeved and foldered.
BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

David Waggoner, missionary for the Presbyterian Church, and his wife Mary, lived and worked in Klawock from 1901 through 1914 when they were transferred to Juneau. Doctor Chisom, who was living in Klawock when the Waggoners arrived, was in possession of a camera and was taking photographs in the community. She left the camera and some of the negatives with the Waggoners. It is uncertain which of the images in the collection were made by Doctor Chisom.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

The collection consists of 299 glass plate negatives created principally by David Waggoner. Another 883 prints are taken from photo albums kept by David and Mary Waggoner. The images depict people and communities in Southeast Alaska, particularly Klawock and Juneau.

The collection also includes an album of 49 photographs relating to the 1929 U.S. Navy Alaska Aerial Survey Expedition, featuring aerial views of communities in Southeast Alaska. It also includes a booklet of photos titled Breaking Ground For The Capitol Building, Juneau, Alaska. September 18, 1929.

Transcripts of writings of Mary and David Waggoner are also included in this collection.

133 glass lantern slides were added to this collection. The subjects covered by these images are similar to the glass plate negatives and the prints from the Waggoner photo album.
