BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

George Cox Friend was born March 1, 1866 in Virginia. He went to Alaska in 1886 (pre gold rush) when he was 20 years old. He retired to the lower 48 states and married Mary Angeline Thompson Pender in 1917. She was a widow with 2 small children. The only child he had, a son, died in infancy. The donor, Lorraine Pender, is the wife of a son of Mary Pender. George Cox Friend died February 12, 1953 in San Jose, California.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

20 photographs showing Alaska mining claims of George Cox Friend. There is a newspaper article that tells the stories of some of the pre-gold rush Alaska sourdoughs, a letter to George Friend from D.E. Griffith asking for his early Alaska story, and an invitation to the reunion dinner of the Pioneers of Forty Mile, Alaska, 1922.
