Dear Researcher:

The Alaska Historical Collections of the Alaska State Library is not staffed to perform in-depth research, or appraise items. As a service to research patrons, we provide the following list of researchers and appraisers offering their services. Please contact the individual researcher for fee schedules and availability.

This list of researchers and appraisers is made available with the understanding that the list is issued without prejudice and that the Alaska State Library is not responsible for the quality of research carried out by the individuals listed. Moreover, the Alaska State Library will not be involved in any arrangements made between or by client and researcher. We hope this list will assist you in your Alaska research.
